materials accompanying this letter, are entitled to confidential treatment and should be exempt from disclosure pursuant to the enumerated exemptions in the Freedom of Information Act, including, but not limited to: FOIA Exemptions 4 (privileged and/or confidential trade secrets and/or commercial or financial information obtained by the SEC),¹ 7 (investigatory records obtained by the Commission in connection with a potential law enforcement proceeding),² and 8 (information "contained in, or related to, any examination, operating, or condition report prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of, the Commission, or any securities self-regulatory organization, responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions).³ In addition, we believe that the protections available under the Privacy Act of 1974⁴ also are applicable to the documents. This claim of confidentiality shall continue indefinitely unless we advise you otherwise.

Accordingly, we expect that all documents and copies of documents produced in connection with this referral, including this letter and emails transmitted to or exchanged with SEC staff, will be kept in a non-public file and that the SEC will maintain the confidentiality of such documents. Should the Commission receive any request pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act for access to the documents produced hereunder, we expect that the SEC will assert all appropriate legal exemptions and privileges and that access to them by any third party not a member of the SEC or its staff will be denied. We further expect to be promptly notified of such request — or any intended public use of these documents — and to be given a reasonable opportunity to object to such disclosure, provide written substantiation of the request for confidential treatment and pursue any remedies that may be available. In such event, we request that the staff telephone the undersigned rather than rely upon the United States mail for such notice. We request that the staff also provide a written copy of such notice by certified mail to the Office of General Counsel, FINRA, 1735 K Street, NW, Washington, DC 20006.

If the Commission makes any of the materials produced hereunder available to another governmental or regulatory authority pursuant to Rule 24c-1 of the Exchange Act, the routine uses of information listed in Form 1661, a memoranda of understanding (MOU) or other such agreement or understanding entered into between the Commission and the requesting authority, it is our expectation that such documents will continue to receive confidential treatment under the Freedom of Information Act, the applicable state information disclosure law, and/or the confidentiality provisions agreed to under the MOU, as well as protection under the Privacy Act of 1974, if applicable.

¹ 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4) and Commission Rule 80(b)(4), 17 C.F.R. 200.80(b)(4), implementing this exemption.

² 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7) and Commission Rule 80(b)(7), 17 C.F.R. 200.80(b)(7), implementing this exemption.

³ 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(8) and Commission Rule 80(b)(8), 17 C.F.R. 200.80(b)(8), implementing this exemption.

⁴ 5 U.S.C. § 552a.
