re: Claim of Leslie Levy

Sir:

You and I have spoken before regarding the claim of my cousin Leslie, who, you acknowledged, was a victim of the stock crimes, to the extent of some $1,000,000. Recently you stated that some millions of dollars have been released/returned to claimants such as Leslie; but SHE HAS RECEIVED NOT ONE DOLLAR. HOW CAN THIS BE! She appears to have done everything but climb up your walls in her attempts to achieve what is legally hers; yet NOTHING.

I cannot imagine how her rights in the piece do not come ahead of, or at least coextensive with, those of claimants who have received distribution of funds recovered by you and available for compensation to all claimants. Leslie's losses changed her entire life, from one of relative comfort, to one of pain, discomfort and frustration. She certainly deserves to reap the benefits of the work you have done in the recent past; she needs those funds to, in at least some modest way, to put her life back on track, so that she can at lease enjoy some of the time left for her on this orb.

I will appreciate your doing whatever is necessary to ensure her recovery, at the earliest possible date. You have my sincere appreciation for your attention to these matters.
